LET'S HAVE HONEST ELECTIONS.

In speaking of the Australian ballot system and fair elections in North Carolina, the Greensboro Telegram says:

"The Democrats being in a large majority have nothing to lose by having fair elections, and if they pass such a measure they will win the esteem and approval of all who believe in purity and honesty in politics."

So far so good. We are glad to see that one by one our Democratic contemporaries are being converted. But before we give them the right hand of fellowship we want to know if they are going to stay converted.

We would like to ask the Telegram if it would still be in favor of honest elections in this State were the result in doubt. It says: "The Democrats being in a large majority have nothing to lose by having fair elections." We fear the Telegram has left a sliding plank in its platform of conversion, so if the result were close a little cheating in elections would be admissible and still stand on the platform. We would like to hear the Telegram, and other Democratic reform papers in the State ring clear on this point. The election law passed by the Fusion Legislature was a fair one, it gave equal rights to both parties, but the Democrats by the abuse of their rights got into power in the State and enacted an election law that would perpetuate them in power in the State, and to clinch the matter passed a law to protect their election thieves in North Carolina. Now we will say to our converted contemporaries that if you want to go the whole cloth, advocate the enactment of a fair election law, the repeal of the law to protect election thieves and let have honest elections in this State. And when this comes to pass, if we are beaten we will take our medicine without a word—will you?

The News and Observer says that the Legislature kept within the State's income in its appropriations, and will have over $8,000 left in the treasury. Representative Murphy, of Buncombe, said on the floor of the House Monday, when a bill was up to increase the salary of some clerk, that they had already appropriated more money than they had in the treasury. These conflicting statements should be reconciled in some way. Mr. Murphy was a member of the Finance Committee, a member of the Appropriation Committee and also a member of the Committee on Salaries and Fees. Mr. Murphy was in a position to know. Where did the News and Observer get its information?

The Legislature of 1905 came to a close Monday. "Of all glad phrases neatly turned, The gladdest is this, They have adjourned."

And the people all over this State can now breathe a sigh of relief, not that their burdens have been removed (for they have been increased) but for the thought that the voters will never permit another such body to assemble in Raleigh to make the laws of this State. At the next election the voters will rise up in righteous indignation and throw off this yoke of Democracy that has voted away their rights and taxed them to death for the support of the Democratic party.

The inauguration of President Roosevelt last Saturday was witnessed by the largest assemblage that has ever attended the inauguration of a President. A well known Washingtonian, in speaking of the class of people that went to see Mr. Roosevelt inaugurated, says:

"It was the finest looking, the best dressed, the most prosperous, the most intelligent assemblage of American citizens who were ever congregated in this town, and I don't think the equal of it could be seen in the capital of any other nation on the globe."

For several months past charges and counter charges have been made against the State Labor Commissioner. The charges were made to the last Legislature against Mr. Varner and the way in which his office had been conducted, and an investigation was asked for. But the legislature has adjourned and there was no investigation. And why? If Mr. Varner is guilty of any act unbecoming to his position then he should be discharged; if the charges are not true, the fact should be proven.

Whatever may be said about the News and Observer, it can't be denied that it is always found on the side of morality, temperance and Democratic doctrine.—Lenoir Topic.

Is it on the side of morality to vote for a man who, only a few days before had been indicted for being drunk and disorderly? Is there any temperance in the Ward bill? Did the Democratic platform declare for the Ward bill?

"This Legislature will not go out bragging about the surplus that is left in the treasury."—Durham Herald.

Just wait until the next campaign and these Democratic politicians will be going over the State telling the tax-payers how much money they saved the State, and the strangest of all, some of the people will believe them.

"Physicians in New York have discovered a man who is entirely without brains. There's nothing for him but chloroform or appointment in some Federal commission."—Washington Post.

We object to any man who voted for Parker being given a federal appointment under a Republican administration.

The Catawba county officer who got drunk en route with his prisoner and was fined for being drunk and down, should be given a dishonorable discharge. We will never have law and order in this State so long as the laws are violated by officers of the law.

In the lower house of the Legislature, Monday, before adjournment, many of the members joined in singing patriotic songs, religious songs and then "rag-time" songs.

Swans also sing before they die. We presume that pressing business engagements prevented Judge Parker from attending the President's inauguration, for it was his intention last fall to be on hand.

The Democratic party may not be dead, but it is disfigured beyond recognition, crippled beyond recovery and disgraced beyond redemption.—Buzz Saw.

How can the Ward bill be called a temperance measure when it does not restrict the sale of whiskey in this State?

Since the Legislature has adjourned the city of Raleigh can now return to the simple life.

The Wardites seem to prefer "white lightning" in small towns.

The recent Legislature gave "Jeffersonian Democracy" a black eye.

U. S. SENATE IN SPECIAL SESSION

Loud Applause for Vice-President Fairbanks—President Sends a Message.

Washington, March 6.—The special session of the Senate was opened today by loud applause for Vice-President Fairbanks when he appeared in the chamber to preside. He at once rapped the Senate to order. In response to a resolution Mr. Allison and Mr. Gorman were named as a committee to notify the President that the Senate was in session, a recess was taken at the expiration of which the committee announced that the President would at once send a message. This was received and considered in executive session, after which the Senate adjourned.

Now that the Ward bill has passed, will its provisions be enforced by State officers?—Union Republican.

With The Lawmakers

The directors of a number of the State institutions were named by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate Monday.

The Jamestown Exposition act finally passed the House Monday, but the appropriation was reduced from $50,000 to $30,000.

The salary bills came up again in the House Monday. The salary of the chief clerk in the Secretary of States office was increased $200.

The McNinch divorce bill saw its finish in the Senate Saturday. The substitute offered by Mr. Eller, which is a more lax law, was adopted.

The omnibus boards of education and magistrates bills were passed Monday. The Republican members were denied the right to name the members of the board of education for their counties.

A bill was introduced in the House Saturday night to require the sheriff of Ashe county to stay in his office for ten days prior to first day of May each year. This was a strike at a Republican Sheriff, and Representative Coles, of Wilkes, offered an amendment making it apply to the State and thereby succeeding in killing the bill.

Representative Koonce, of Onslow county, has persistently tried to have a bill passed in the House, making it a felony to carry a concealed weapon, but before the House adjourned Monday Judge Winborn arose and addressing Mr. Koonce, he recalled how he believed that some person must have made a violent personal attack on the gentleman from Onslow during the campaign, and that that was his reason for trying to make pistol-toting a felony. With this he handed Mr. Koonce a revolver and told him to defend himself. The gentleman who had a fight with Mr. Koonce during the campaign had better steer clear.

A member of the House Monday introduced the following resolution: "That whereas it has been found necessary, in view of the long and tedious discussion on the Ward bill, that a messenger should be detailed for the purpose of taking trips between the capitol and the Raleigh dispensary; and

Whereas the distance covered by said messenger would aggregate many miles:

"Therefore, it is resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

"That C. G. Harris, of Company A, Tenth Battalion of Heavy Artillery, the aforesaid messenger, be allowed mileage between the dispensary and the capitol building, such mileage to be computed by the gentleman from Mecklenburg."

Mr. Murphy, of Rowan, was permitted to have the following protest to the Ward bill, spread upon the journal.

Whereas, at this session of the General Assembly of North Carolina, an act has passed, known as the Ward bill, and whereas the aforesaid act is in my opinion a political makeshift and not a measure beneficial to the people of North Carolina being in its effect an abridgment of the rights of the people, a blow to local self-government and a restriction of the right of suffrage and absolutely in opposition to the platform and principles of my party. And whereas such legislation is contrary to the pledges and provisions made by me to my people and absolutely at variance with my interpretation of the Democratic platform. Now, therefore, in the exercise of my constitutional right, I hereby file my protest against such legislation upon the grounds set forth in the premises and upon the additional grounds that said legislation in its effect deprives men of property without due recompense, and further it establishes three grades of suffrage in North Carolina upon the question of prohibition, which I hereby submit is not in accordance with the principles of a republican form of government, and contrary to the constitution and rights of the people.

Explosive in a Letter.

Lexington, N. C., March 7.—While stamping a lot of letters in the postoffice yesterday afternoon, Postmaster J. G. Walser was slightly injured and greatly frightened by the explosion of the contents of one of the letters when it was struck with the stamp. Mr. Walser received an injury in one eye by powder burn, and his face was blackened by the explosion.

Voice of the People.

[This column is open to our readers through which to voice their sentiments on any timely topic. We will be glad to receive communications from any of our readers. Make your articles reasonably short and to the point.]

Editor Caucasian:—I see compulsion is to be used in education and other ways. Compulsory laws, etc., brings on hatred, hatred brings on crime and crime is the last stage of mankind, as Judas. Man in this stage can use no reasoning power. His mind is lost to reason and brotherly love, one man for another. It seems to me the Democrats are right here now in full force; by their acts we know them; they are doomed to reason by hatred; they seek peace, but there is no peace. It seems that a worldly lust of the wrongs of this world is going on at a mighty fast rate. The people should stop and think that we are all human beings and the best for the people and not let compulsory run into crime, and crime be the last of an educated people.

Situation in Cumberland.

Editor Caucasian:—It is real amusing for a country man to stand off and watch the antics of our town politicians. It beats the mischief to hear them moaning over the hardships of the poor old farmer in old Cumberland. Why, bless your dear life the very fellows who a few years ago fought every move made by the Farmers Alliance to better their condition, and some of them even tried to get their charter annulled are the same hypocrites who are now calling meetings and making great pretences that they love the dear farmers so much. But we farmers have them spotted and they can't fool us. There is a continuous warfare in the old town of Fayetteville as to who will be boss, and some of their names have appeared so often in that little hide-bound Observer that it has become a stench in the nostrils of all good citizens of the county. They "cuss" over prohibition—some are wet and some are dry (by force of circumstances), and the truth is, there are about fifty "blind tigers" in town, some among the lowest and some among the highest of its citizens, and yet they are not satisfied. Every mother son of them says it is the dear people they are working for, when, in fact, they don't care a continental for the people, but are seeking through this nefarious scheme to fool the country people that they may get some office. They are not only growling over the whiskey, but keep up a continuous howl over the country affairs, and even the affairs of their municipality—everybody, but the fellow doing the talking, is a rascal—and, begosh, we country folks think he is, too, and upon the whole they are all a set not able to run their own internal affairs, and yet they would attempt to dictate to us our policies. We country people are just sitting off laughing to see what a set of ignoramuses they are. Why, they ought to come to us for advice. We manage our own business, and actually feed and clothe them, and yet they are not content—can't even get along after we furnish them with food and raiment, and still some little jackleg, who has assumed the title of captain or colonel, will bob up with tears in his eyes as large as horse-apples, and send out word to we farmers to meet at the court-house on a certain day and "less organize." But we farmers don't meet; we have meat at home and no thanks to these political ringsters, who have always been our worst enemies. We think it would pay the city folks to just sweep before their own doors; rid the town of the dirt and smoke and either be bry or wet, and then we would consider a proposition from them.

With best wishes for The Caucasian.

STARTLING MORTALITY.

Statistics show startling mortality, from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. Kinz's New Life Pills. M. INCREDIBLE BRUTALITY.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye. Good for burns and ulcers, too. Only 25c at all druggists."

Farming For

PROFIT

There is nothing too good for the Farmer; there is nothing too good for the Farm. Good bays, good hogs, good wells, good fences, good stock, all on good land, under good management assure good profits. The good applies throughout. It must apply throughout, or it will not apply to profit.

Nowhere is discrimination more necessary than in the selection of fences. The farm must be fenced. Hence, select the best fence, the ELLWOOD FENCE.

The Ellwood is built like a bridge—braced, supported, tied; no stronger or more substantial structure possible. Ellwood fences will hold your hogs, cattle, horses, and poultry. Ellwood Fence has always been popular. It answers all purposes and never disappoints.

We have Ellwood Fences for sale, and at prices that will suit you. Command and see us—we have a bargain for you.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

Some squibs of interest we have gathered with our Paste-Pot and Shears.

Every Democratic Legislature increases the State debt and raises taxation. Good people how do you like it?—Davie Record.

A pin belonging to Mr. Jones Mitchell, Rolesville, Wake county, was destroyed by fire Sunday, loss, $2.00; No insurance.

Poquay Springs, this county, was visited by a big fire Sunday. A hotel and residence were burned. Loss, $4,500, with no insurance.

The Reverend Josiah William Biley is walking on stilts just now with a feather in his derby—he has bloomed into a full-fledged Democratic boss, and the Senatorial bee is buzzing again.—Davie Record.

A bill to increase the salary of the chief clerk and the stenographer in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction to $1,250 and $500 respectively, has been carried in the Legislature. There seems to be little opposition in that body to his increasing salaries and in creating new offices.—Union Republican.

AN OFFICER DISGRACES THE LAW.

Tanks up on Mean Whiskey, Loses His Prisoner and is Fined for Being Drunk.

The Charlotte Observer reports that a Catawba county policeman, named Jones, went to Charlotte, Saturday, for a prisoner, and that the officer of the law tanked up on whiskey, secured in the prohibition town, and started home with his prisoner. He was so drunk when he changed cars at Statesville that even the prisoner was unable to get him on the train, so the prisoner left him and went back to Catawba to stand trial, while the officer was locked up for being drunk and down and was taxed with $3 and cost.

Dresses for Babies.

In making dresses for children from six months of age up to five or six years more elaborate trimmings and designs may be used than for baby's long clothes. Even with these short dresses, however, simplicity combined with good material will make the daintiest and prettiest dresses.

Materials for such dresses may be what the purse will allow. Wash-chiffon is a material that despite its name lends itself well to the needs of little people. It comes forty-eight inches wide, and costs but forty-five cents a yard. By making a dress the wrong way of the weave (which wears just as well as the right way), one yard will make a very plain dress, and one and one-half yards will make an elaborate one for a child one year old.—March Woman's Home Companion.

Sensational Shooting at Gastonia.

Gastonia, N. C., March 6.—A very sensational shooting affray occurred at Bessemer city last night. Mr. Charles Smith, 22 years old, was returning from the home of Miss Paula Jenkins, when some one fired five shots, one taking effect. The bullet passed through the fleshy portion of Smith's right leg, lodging in the left leg against the bone. It made a very painful but not dangerous wound. Suspicion points to Ed Jenkins, a half-brother of Miss Jenkins.

Springs Ebertoft, of Coolemees, Rowan county, committed suicide Sunday by shooting himself in the head.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How to Find Out. Fill a bottle or commode with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and seething pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Sampson County.

This column will be devoted each week to the local news and general news pertaining to Sampson County.

Representative Fowler returned to Clinton Saturday.

Maj. Butler and wife returned from Raleigh Monday.

Capt. E. L. Faison, of Elliot, died Saturday afternoon. He was about 75 years old. He left a widow, who was Miss Cornelia Hopper, of Weldon, and two children, Mr. E. L. Faison, Jr., and Mrs. Muriel Butler. Capt. Faison was a graduate of the State University and was a captain in the Civil War. He was one of the most prominent citizens of Sampson county.

When the South Dakota and Shafter bond question, carrying with it bond issue of $250,000, the Democratic members insisted that Representative Fowler and Butler should vote on the measure. Mr. Fowler said he was in favor of the bonds being paid out of the $300,000 they said they had in the State treasury during the last campaign. This was a stunner for them and they agreed to excuse Mr. Fowler from voting.

When they demanded that Mr. Butler should vote he told them that it had been stated in the daily papers that he had left a busy law office and came to the Legislature to act as wet-nurse for the South Dakota bonds; that he or any member of the minority had not been appointed on any of the committees to investigate the question, and that even when he introduced an amendment to the Code that a special committee was appointed to investigate his bill to see if it had any bearing on the South Dakota bonds. He said he was not interested in bonds directly, or indirectly. Evidently the Democrats were sorry they "spoke," for they immediately moved to excuse Mr. Butler from voting.

TRIBUTE FROM MR. PETTIGREW

Ex-Senator From South Dakota Predicts Third Term for Roosevelt.

Former Senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota, was seen at the New Willard last night. Since his term in the Senate he has been actively engaged in business, including mining and other enterprises, and is reported to have made considerable money. During this time he has taken very little active interest in politics, though he has kept in touch with the situation, and has as keen an interest in political affairs as ever.

When asked what he thought of the President's position on the railroad rate and trust question, he said: "I did not vote for President Roosevelt, neither did I vote for Mr. Parker. I believe, however, that it was far better for the country that Mr. Roosevelt should be elected than that Parker should succeed, and should undoubtedly have voted for Roosevelt if the contest had been so close that it was necessary in order to elect him."

"Since the election the President's courageous and manly attitude with regard to the trusts and railroads has won my admiration and that of the great mass of American people, regardless of party, who are the producers of the wealth of the nation. His clear knowledge of men and affairs enables him to see that there is no remedy for the trust evils as long as the railroads continue freight discriminations in their favor. And he clearly saw that it was these rebates and discriminations which have sided and fostered the trusts, and which makes every effort at their destruction impossible so long as they are continued."

"His broad national policy and his indorsement of Lincoln's views mark him as a statesman of great ability and knowledge, and if he continues in his present course—and there is no doubt that he will do so—even though he has declared that he is not a candidate for re-election, the demand will be so great that he will be renominated and re-elected even in spite of his protest."

"I have heard many men say they did not vote for Roosevelt, but would now do so, and I think this is the position of the many thousands of voters in every Northern State."

For the Young Housewife.

The young housewives and girls that are training for the responsibilities of a household will find much that is useful in the little papers contributed to The Delinctor by Isabel Gordon Curtis under the title "The Making of a Housewife." In the April number the topic is "Planning a Week's Work, and Wash-Day." The author suggests an economical distribution of time and labor that will recommend itself to all who read her remarks. Other features of domestic interest in the same number are illustrated cookery for Easter entertainment and a number of recipes under the topics, "Delicious Hot Breakfast Cakes," "Lenten Soups," "Cheese as a Nutritive Article of Diet," and "Savory Varieties of the Homely Bread Pudding," besides a practical article on "Cleaning and Renovating Garments."

Next State Fair. Mr. Joseph E. Pogue, Secretary, announces that the Forty-Fifth State Fair will be held at Raleigh, October 16-21, 1905.

Why do you never see anything about the price of wheat and corn in the Democratic papers?—North State.

$5,000

Reward will be paid to any person who can find one atom of opium, chloral, morphine, cocaine, ether or chloroform in any form in any of Dr. Miles' Remedies.

This reward is offered because certain unscrupulous persons make false statements about these remedies. It is understood that this reward applies only to goods purchased in the open market, which have not been tampered with in any way. Dr. Miles' remedies cure by their soothing, nourishing, strengthening and invigorating effects upon the nervous system, and not by paralyzing and weakening the nerves as would be the case if these drugs were used.

For this reason Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are universally considered the best pain remedy. "I have suffered for 25 years with severe pains in my head, heart and back, and have tried everything I could get and could not find any relief until I got a box of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. I suffered as long as 12 hours at a time with such severe pains that I feared I would lose my mind. The Anti-Pain Pills gave me relief in from 10 to 20 minutes. I do not have to use Morphine any more. I wish you would publish this so that other sufferers may find relief."

Save Your Daughter

No. 38 West 2nd Street, New York City, N. Y., April 3, 1903.

Wine of Cardui has been a blessing to my home. I have often found that it was a great relief when I was weary or in pain, but I am especially grateful for what it did for our daughter and only child. I noticed that her menses were late and she suffered with headaches and dizziness, heaviness in the abdomen and about the loins. This seriously interfered with her studies and she had to discontinue several of them.

A visitor calling on me and discussing the matter suggested that I give her a course of your Wine of Cardui as it had relieved her daughter of a similar trouble. After my daughter had used it for five weeks I found a great improvement in her looks, health and behavior, in fact she was a different girl. The flow became regular and we have not had any difficulty since.

WINE OF CARDUI

Here the menstrual function had not been properly started and the unnatural condition was making the young girl an invalid. The headaches and dizziness, indicated something more than a mere temporary ailment. They were symptoms of a functional weakness which would become more and more aggravated as years went by. But Mrs. Thompson was ready to take advice for her daughter's welfare and she gave the little sufferer Wine of Cardui and now she is a well young woman.

If your daughter is sickly and frequently ailing the letter of this good mother contains the best advice you can follow.

Wine of Cardui is the menstrual regulator that cures nine cases out of every ten. Young girls, mothers and aged women find this tonic indispensable. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

WORK OF CONGRESS

The Senate and House Regularly at Work—What They are Doing.

The Civil Appropriation Bill.
The Senate passed the sundry civil appropriation bill, carrying about $68,000,000. Various amendments were offered to the measure, and most of them were defeated by a narrow margin. There also was discussion of the pure food bill, and Mr. Dilliver made a brief speech in support of his resolution providing for the appointment of a joint congressional commission to investigate the question of railroad rates. The resolution was referred to the committee on inter-State commerce. When the sundry civil bill came up, the House provision relating to the expenses of Federal judges was amended at the instance of Senator Platt, of Connecticut, so as to provide for "reasonable expenses actually incurred for travel and attendance," not exceeding $10 a day.

Mr. Culberson presented an amendment, prohibiting the allowance of fees to United States district attorneys in excess of their salaries. It was aimed especially at the New York district attorney. Mr. Bacon suggested a fixed salary of $10,000 for the New York officer, and with this change the amendment was adopted. It prohibits the payment of fees to district attorneys except in the case of the District of Attorney.

An amendment was adopted authorizing the construction of a lightship off Brunswick, Ga., at a cost of $90,000. The bill was then passed.

A conference on the river and harbor bill was granted, and Messrs. Galling, Nelson and Berry appointed conferees on behalf of the Senate.

Mr. Heyburn introduced up the pure food bill and addressed the Senate on its provisions. While talking he was interrupted by many Senators desiring to pass bills. Among these was one prohibiting the sending of insects injurious to crops through the mails. Mr. Culberson objected, and in doing so had a letter read from Charles William Cunningham, of Texas, proposing to "corner" the cotton crop by the wholesale introduction of the boll weevil into the States. While the letter purported to be from Texas, it was written on paper bearing the letter head of Price, McCormick & Company, of New York, and the writer said that the name signed was fictitious.

Mr. Platt, of Connecticut, offered a number of amendments to the pure food bill, and discussed the provisions of the measures. Mr. Hale reported the general deficiency, after which a recess was taken.

When the Senate reassembled, the pure food bill was temporarily laid aside, and Mr. Kern reported back the resolution instructing the committee on inter-State commerce to sit during the approaching recess of Congress.

The resolution was continued up by several Senators. At the instance of Mr. Martin, the scope of the resolution was so extended as to include an investigation into the liability of railroads for accidents to employees, and was then adopted.

The general deficiency appropriation bill, the last of the great supply measures, was taken up.

While the general deficiency bill was under consideration Mr. Martin called up the House bill appropriating $250,000 for a celebration in 1907 of the first settlement of English-speaking people, and it was passed. The bill will now go to the President. Mr. Hainsbrough moved to increase from $10,000 to $25,000 the appropriation to defray the expense of the congressional committee to attend the opening of the Lewis and Clark exposition.

Mr. Bailey opposed the increase, saying that $1,000 each for the committee on such a trip is unwarranted extravagance.

The motion was voted down.

The general deficiency bill was passed after striking out the House provision appropriating $190,000 to pay mileage to Senators and Representatives on account of the extra session of the 58th Congress.

Messrs. Allison, Hale and Cockrell were appointed conferees on the sundry civil bill.

For Jamestown Exposition.
The Senate bill providing for participation in the exposition to celebrate the first permanent settlement of English-speaking people on the Western hemisphere, in the vicinity of Jamestown, Va., on the waters of Hampton Roads, was passed by the House when, by a vote of 192 to 91, the bill for that purpose was passed under a suspension of the Rules. The amount appropriated is $250,000. To put the bill through a two-thirds vote was necessary, and this was obtained only after considerable debate. The members of the Virginia delegation during the roll call mingled among their colleagues and personally appealed to them to cast their vote in support of the measure. An interested spectator was Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, president of the exposition company.

Mr. Maynard, of Virginia, moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill appropriating $250,000 for an international naval, marine and military celebration to be held on the waters of Hampton Roads, beginning May 13 and ending not later than Nov. 1, 1907, in commemoration of the first permanent settlement of English-speaking people in America at Jamestown, Virginia, in 1607.

Mr. Tawney, of Minnesota, chairman of the committee on industrial arts and exhibitions, in favor of the bill, gave a graphic description of the grounds and the results are lasting and beneficial.

The whole plan was described by Mr. Burkett as "ridiculous from beginning to end." The proposed exposition, he said, was clouded with indefiniteness, because he said one knew where or how long it was going to be held or whether there would be a single cent available to hold the exposition at all. Mr. Hepburn could only see in the appropriation an international junket for certain foreign princes and princesses, and he said that if they came with a military or naval display. In addition, he said, it was but the authorization for further expenditure.

Mr. Barker, of New York, also opposed the measure.

Mr. Samson, of Virginia, replying to Mr. Burkett, indignantly denied that the money was intended for a government exhibit. He emphatically asserted that the exposition company had at its disposal $1,200,000 for the undertaking.

The debate was brought to a close by Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, who, in favor of the bill, appealed to the House to get rid of the questions of economy, and of territory for a moment, "and do an act of justice to the grand old patriotic Commonwealth of Virginia."

On division the House by a vote of 185 to 81 suspended the rules and passed the bill, but on demand of Mr. Littlefield, the yeas and nays were recorded and the bill was passed.

PROTECTION AGAINST A WITCH.

Law Invoked to Keep Woman From Supernatural Detective Work.

Once or twice a year some extraordinary piece of evidence finds its way into the papers of the survival of the most primitive forms of witchcraft, and of the belief in the same, in parts of Ireland.

As a rule these cases transpire when the law is broken by persons ill-treating the supposed witch, as when last year an unfortunate woman was held on the fire to drive an evil spirit out of her.

But the last few days have shown a novel case, in which the protection of the law was invoked to protect certain persons against a witch.

An old Irish peasant woman had suffered from the theft of a small sum of money. Being unable to discover the thief or thieves, she had made a straw image, dressed it up, stuck it full of pins, and placed it on a bier, and proceeded to hold a "wake" or funeral party over it. She then declared that her intention was to bury this image, with suitable invocations, with the certain result that as the straw of which it was made decayed away so would the body of the thief waste and dwindle.

Lost Calf Found With Wild Deer. An odd story comes up from Great Island, in Portland harbor, in connection with the deer situation down there. Last fall a calf belonging to Frank Stevens strayed away and, although efforts were made to find it, could not be located.

Recently, however, some gunners who were out hunting saw the long lost calf in company with a deer, and since that time the two have been seen together on several occasions, sometimes the calf being with several deer. It is evident that the little animal has been adopted by the deer of Great Island and has now become one of their number. It has become shy as a deer and in fact lives and acts just as they do.—Kennebec Journal.

ALL SICK WOMEN

SHOULD READ MRS. FOX'S LETTER

In All Parts of the United States Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Effectuated Similar Cures.

Many wonderful cures of female ills are continually being effected which have been brought about by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and through the advice of Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., which is given to sick women absolutely free of charge.

Mrs. Pinkham has for many years made a study of the ills of her sex; she has consulted with and advised thousands of suffering women who to-day owe not only their health but even life to her helpful advice.

Mrs. Fannie D. Fox, of 7 Chestnut Street, Bradford, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I suffered for a long time with womb trouble, and finally was told by a physician that I had a tumor on the womb. I did not want to submit to an operation, so I wrote you for advice. I received your letter and as you told me, and to-day I am completely cured. My doctor says the tumor has disappeared, and I am now as well as ever. I believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine in the world for women.

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She asks nothing in return for her advice. It is absolutely free, and to thousands of women has proved to be more precious than gold.
